With a little persistence —

History

- Began in 1974
- Started with 1000 items collected at the convention, all of which were donated by publishers or vendors
- The Collection has grown each year with contributions from publishers, composers, and NFA members

The library:

- Is the largest lending library of flute music in the world
- Contains over 15,000 items
- Has Special Collections, which contain rare and out-of-print pieces
- All of this music is available to NFA members!

The Library contains music for:

- Solo flute/flute alone (c flute, piccolo, alto and bass flutes)
- Flute(s) and piano
- Flute ensembles (duos, choirs, etc)
- Flute and other winds, flute and voice
- Flute and strings, flute and percussion
- Flute and band or orchestra

Why you should use the NFA Library:

- Save $: try before you buy
- Recession Special: some music is very expensive
- Out-of-print music available
- Find antique musical gems
- Delight in the old engraving processes

The Special Collections

- Gutkind Collection (650 items, most copyright 1870-1923, much of it for flute and piano);
- Medicus Collection (259 items, most copyright 1883-1935, equally split between solo music and ensemble);
- Nielsen Collection (72 items, most copyright 1880-1912, much of it for chamber ensemble);
- Lewis Collection (329 items, most copyright 1879-1926; much of it for piccolo).

Success!

- ### General Guidelines for Search
- Be specific.
 - Use search words individually.
 - Be patient! There is more Bach in the library than Piston.
 - You can only borrow sheet music that uses flute (i.e., cello and/or piano sheet music cannot be sent out).
 - You cannot borrow recordings.
