FEATURES

- 32 Musical Manipulations: An Interview with Matthias Ziegler
by Nancy Andrew Flutist Matthias Ziegler has created a world of new sounds through use of improvisation, technology, and consistently fresh approaches to how he plays and hears music. As a teacher, he says he is “very traditional.”
- 38 Career Advice From the Orchestral Flute Section
by Jessica Halpin
An aspiring orchestral flutist shares insights from a national study she conducted. Her goal was to learn how best to procure one of the few prized orchestral seats available in today’s dwindling market. Her resources? Current occupants of the flute section.
- 42 Remembering Karlheinz Zöller
by Brooks de Wetter-Smith and Michael Faust, translated and edited by John Bailey Karlheinz Zöller, great flutist and perhaps even greater teacher, died in July 2005 after a severe illness—for all of us, much too soon.
- 48 Summer 2006 Masterclasses
compiled by Tony Watson
