FEATURES

20 Into the Light: Mieczyslaw Weinberg's Five Pieces for Flute and Piano

by Mimi Stillman

The author premiered this “new” work nearly 70 years after its composition by Mieczyslaw Weinberg, a prolific composer and Shostakovich protégé who survived both Soviet and Nazi persecution.

30 Small But Mighty: Flute Music Composers of the Baltic States

by Paul Taub

The tiny countries of Estonia, Latvia, and Lithuania have put forth giants in the world of flute composition. The author provides insights into five important composers from this vibrant region—four of them people with whom he has collaborated directly.

36 Ana Batinica: Contemporary Classics From An Ancient Coast

by Nicole Molumby

The recipient of the 2015 Myrna Brown International Scholarship, who was born in a small, medieval town on the Croatian coast, spoke with the scholarship committee’s coordinator about her musical life and her passion for modern works.

40 Taylor Gaines Passes It Forward

by Taylor Gaines

The 2015 recipient of the Frances Blaisdell Convention Scholarship describes her experiences at the 43rd Annual NFA Convention in Washington, D.C.—and her plans to carry forward what she learned there.
