FEATURES

20 The Artistry of Emmanuel Pahud

by Susan Waller

Nearing 45, the internationally acclaimed flutist is already twice the age he was when he took on the position—previously held by Sir James Galway, Aurèle Nicolet, and Karlheinz Zöllner—of principal flutist of the Berlin Philharmonic. It is but one item on his crowded curriculum vitae.

28 Practicing Self-Compassion

by Noa Kageyama

Performance psychologist Noa Kageyama offers a counterintuitive strategy for becoming more motivated and resilient in the practice room—and less anxious under pressure.

34 Maxence Larrieu: Quantity and Quality

by Jonathan Keeble

The incomparable Maxence Larrieu, recipient of the 2014 NFA Lifetime Achievement Award, talks about his long career, his namesake competition, and his extensive work with Poulenc and Rampal.
